

I oppose proposal RM-10051 (SAVI Technologies) of 01-278. Present amateur radio activity in this portion of the spectrum is substantial and is destined to become more critical to effective amateur operations. Even low level transmissions used on a wide spread basis will raise the effective noise level rendering that portion of the spectrum useless.